

Fort Genoa, located 15 miles southwest of Carson City, Nevada, was the state's first permanent settlement, reports the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Political Forum At Y's Men Dinner Slated

The Torrance Y's Men's Club, the service club of the YMCA, will feature two outstanding political speakers at their bi-monthly dinner meeting on Tuesday, at the YMCA.

Pedestrians can do much to protect themselves in city traffic, says the Automobile Club of Southern California. Some safe-walking tips for city pedestrians are: always cross at corners, not in the middle of the block; cross with the light at all times; and look in all directions before starting across a street.

GETS ADVANCE DEGREE Stanley Helman, past governor of the Torrance Moose Lodge, has been advanced to the Fellowship degree of the Moose fraternity, James McCune, governor of the local lodge, announced this week.
